

Danielle Van Mal-Maeder

Istituto Svizzero

Danielle Van Mal-Maeder argued her thesis at the University of Groningen, doctorate in literature. She is an ordinary professor of Latin language and literature at the University of Lausanne and is responsible for “Classical Tradition” (with Prof. David Bouverier). She is a member of the Evaluation Committee of the SNSF Mobility-postdoc, a member of the SAV Scholarship Committee, a member of the Board of the Fondation van Walsem, a member of the Swiss Institute in Rome, co-editor of the ECHO collection at the University of Lausanne and a member of the Editorial Board of the “Museum Helveticum”.