

Guerreiro do divino Amor

Swiss-Brazilian artist Guerreiro do Divino Amor (1983) was born in Geneva and lives and works in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He did a Master's in architecture at the Ecole Supérieure d'architecture de Grenoble, before graduating also from La Cambre in Brussels, the Cimdada Medienakademie in Berlin, and the EAV Parque Lage in Rio de Janeiro.

His work is featured on national and international platforms in Brazil, Germany, Lithuania, Mexico, Singapore, Spain, Switzerland, and the USA. He currently exhibits at the Visual Arts Center at the University of Texas, Austin. He has received multiple international awards. In 2021, he was chosen for the renowned DAAD Artists-in-Berlin program. He was the recipient of the PIPA award in 2019 and was among the finalists of the Swiss Art Awards in 2008 and 2017. Guerreiro do Divino Amor has been selected for Swiss Pavilion at the Biennale Arte 2024.